Our solicitor, George C. Peck, who has been covering the rural routes in the county, taking orders from farmers for stationary, found a place last week on Humboldt creek where he stopped at every house for ten miles and found the REPUBLIC a regular visitor at each house. Can any other local paper make and prove such a statement?

J. U. Grant and Henry Thiele have bought Cadillac automobiles from Nieuzemmayer and will have them on the street very shortly. Several others are planning to get machines.

THE STARTING POINT

Of many a successful man's career was his first deposit. There is something about a bank account which creates an ambition to make it grow.

The Central National Bank

Invites you to start an acbount with it. The littleness of your cash needn't stop you. Many a now wealthy man has commenced with less.
